SMCC's HISTORY

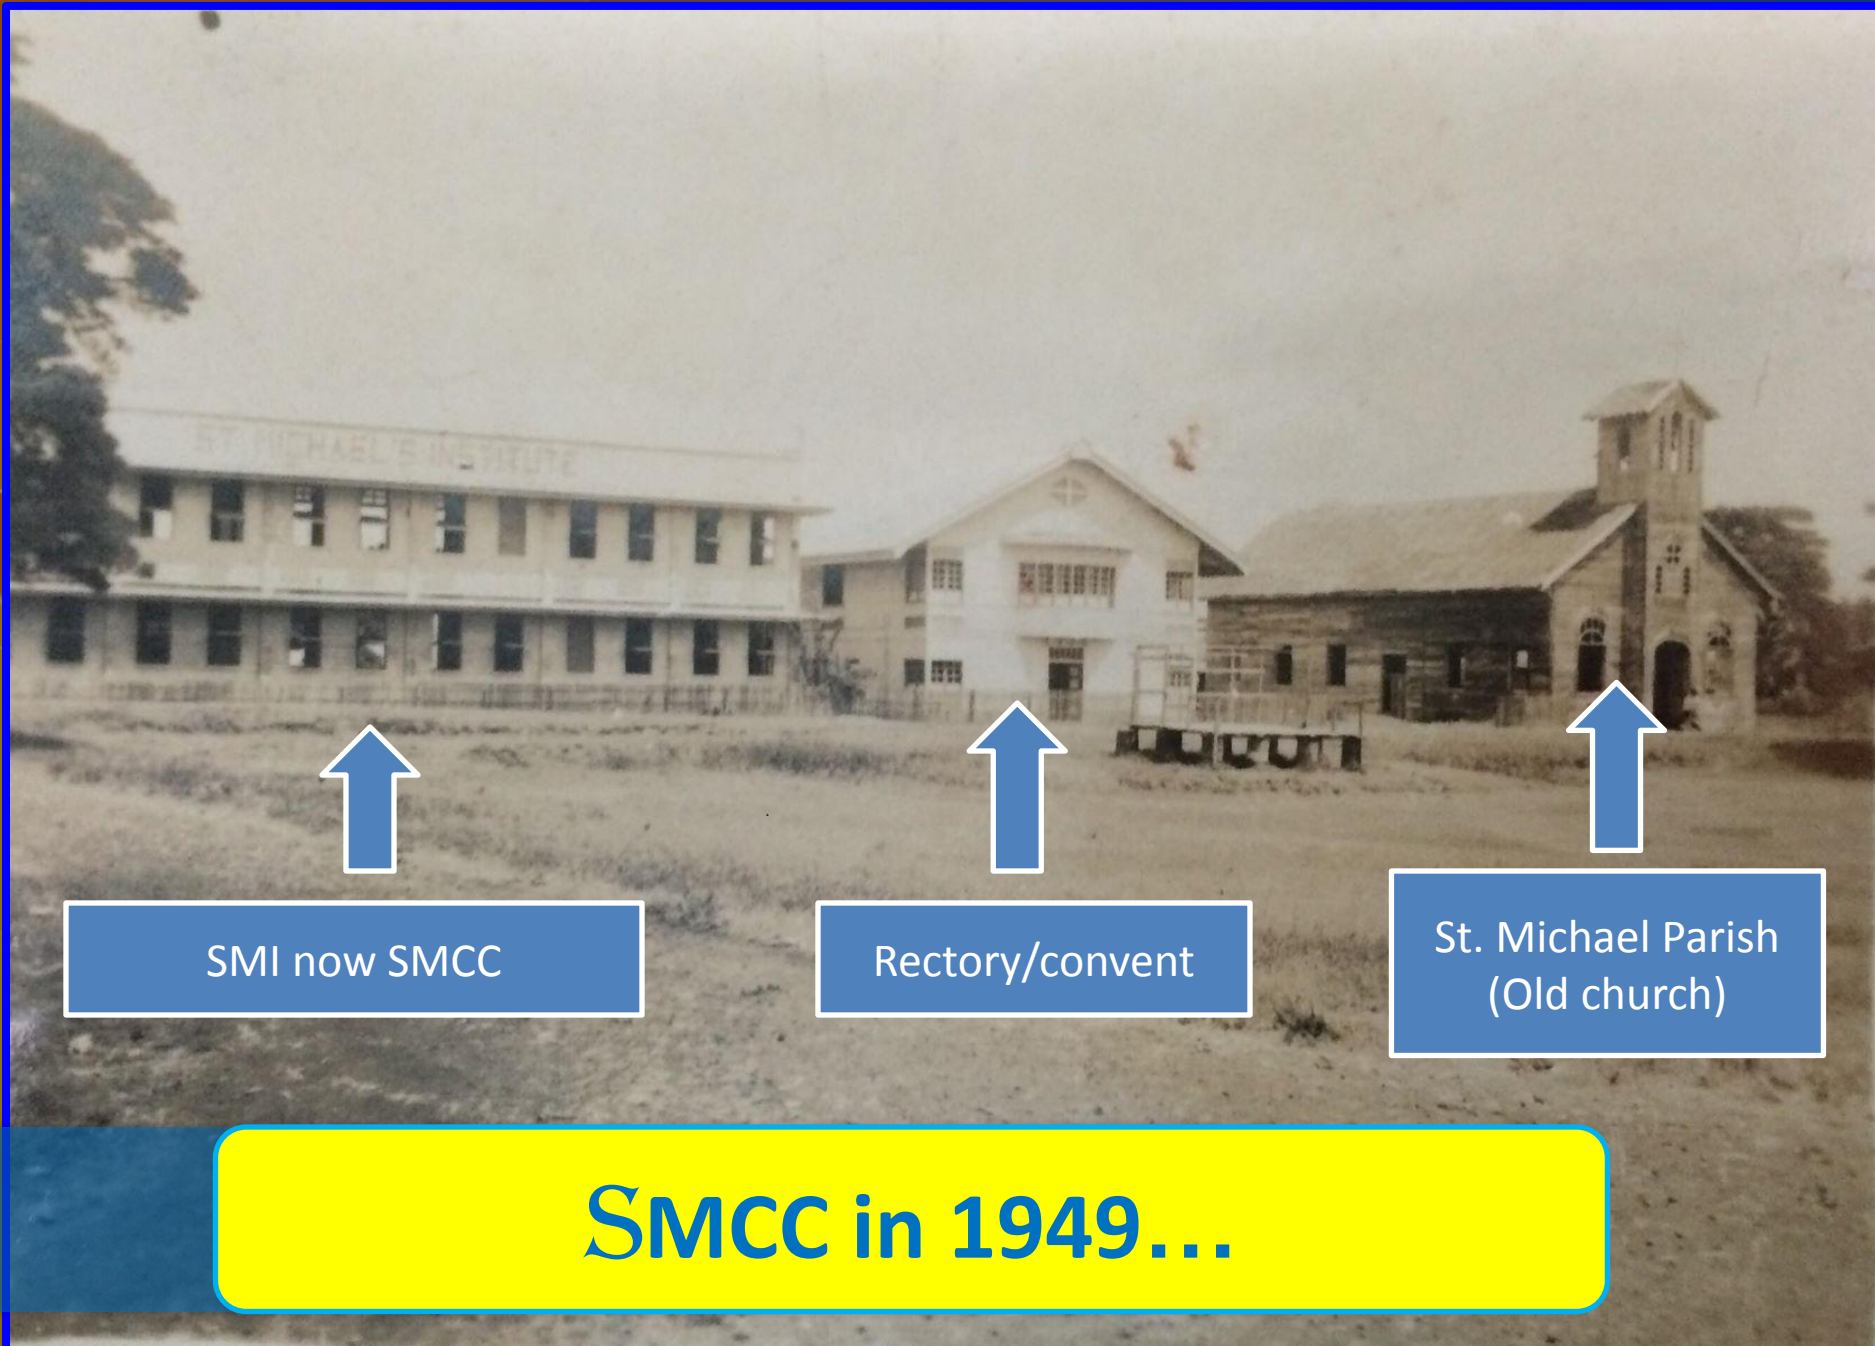

SMCC HISTORY

In 1948, Nasipit was still a part of the Parish of Buenavista whose Parish Priest was the late Rev. Fr. Martin Westeinde, MSC. As the town progresses, population also increased and business gained momentum with the start of the logging industry of Nasipit Lumber Company (NALCO). Fr. Martin and his co-adjutor Rev. Fr. Atanacio de Castro saw the need of putting-up a secondary school. Fr. de Castro was made a in-charge of the school.

SMI now SMCC started its operation on July 1, 1948 with Fr. Francisco van Dyke as the first School Director. He was succeeded by Fr. Gerard Cruijsen, Fr. Geraldo Blewanus, Fr. Enrique van Ma-anen, Fr. Venancio Portillo, Fr. Mateo van Santvoord, and Fr. Anthony Krol in the order of succession. Fr. Krol was the last Dutch Priest who served as the School Director.

The school site is beside the rectory with an area of 1, 630 sq. m. Fr. Gerard Cruijsen, one of the subsequent Directors converted the nipa- wooden structure into two-storey building with 16 classrooms.
